

KIMBERLY YEO

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Qualifications

Kimberly graduated from the University of Tasmania with a Bachelor of Laws and was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor in the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2022.

Kimberly is currently a Senior Associate in the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice.

Specialisation

She has advised and acted for clients across a wide range of industries and legal needs, including construction, defence and aircraft, education, food and beverage, logistics, and private clients.

Kimberly is experienced in working with Mandarin-speaking clients, and brings a cross-jurisdictional perspective to her practice, having begun her legal career in the central business district of Melbourne, Australia. Kimberly has served clients from multiple jurisdictions, including Australia, Brazil, China, Dubai, India, Italy, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Vietnam, UK, and the US.

With an interest in the aviation sector, Kimberly also possesses a Diploma (with Distinction) in International Air Law conferred by the International Air Transport Association (IATA), further strengthening the firm's capabilities in this specialised area of law.

Beyond Work

Within the legal fraternity, Kimberly served on the International Relations Committee (2024-2025) and Young Lawyers Committee (2025) of the Law Society of Singapore.

Outside of work, Kimberly plays the viola and volunteers as a grassroots leader.
